

TREDYFFRIN EASTTOWN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

KEEPING UPPER MAIN LINE HISTORY ALIVE SINCE 1936

APPLICATION FOR 2008 MEMBERSHIP

Founded in 1936 as the Tredyffrin Easttown History Club, the organization was reorganized in 2005 as a not-for-profit corporation. For over 70 years, the entirely volunteer Historical Society has studied and collected the history of Tredyffrin and Easttown Townships and the Upper Main Line . . . and shared all this with this community.

Please participate, through membership, in this continuing work of remembering our local history and keeping it alive. Your membership will further the Society's efforts to digitize our written and photographic archives for future generations; the expansion of our website - www.tehistory.org; and the continuation of our monthly programs on community history. Benefits of annual membership include receiving 4 copies of the Tredyffrin Easttown History Quarterly - featuring full-length articles on our local history - and free admission to the 9 public meetings scheduled for 2008.

Each of the 4 issues of the Tredyffrin Easttown History Quarterly published in 2008 will be promptly mailed to members. Though USPS rates have increased since last year, your Society has frugally kept this year's dues at the 2007 level.

And remember, as a not-for-profit corporation, your entire membership fee is tax deductible.

Detach this form, and submit with your payment to: TREDYFFRIN EASTTOWN HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 244 Vincent Road, Paoli, PA 19301. For further membership questions contact membership@tehistory.org, or at 610-725-0229.
