

TREDYFFRIN EASTTOWN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

KEEPING UPPER MAIN LINE HISTORY ALIVE SINCE 1936

APPLICATION FOR 2010 MEMBERSHIP

Founded in 1936 as the Tredyffrin Easttown History Club, the organization was reorganized in 2005 as a not-for-profit corporation. For over 70 years this entirely volunteer local historical organization has studied and collected the history of the Upper Main Line . . . and shared it with the community.

In these challenging financial times, your Society has once again frugally kept the 2010 membership fee at last year's level. Each member will promptly receive by mail their copy of the History Quarterly – one approximately every three months. And remember that the Tredyffrin Easttown Historical Society is a tax-exempt organization. Contributions are allowable Federal income tax deductions. Bequests to the Society are allowable Federal and State estate tax deductions. It has been determined that the entire annual membership fee, and all additional contributions, are tax-deductible.

Complete this application, then detach this completed lower section and mail with your payment to:
