From the Editor

Our inaugural Quarterly of 2012 is a double issue, which enables us to cover the subject matter of the Generals' Quarters in a single printing, rather than spreading it across two or more issues. We will return to our regular format for the remaining two issues of this year. Thanks to Mike Bertram for organizing the old photos of the quarters and presenting them to the Society at its February meeting earlier this year. Mike has also added to his 18th Century Tredyffrin collection on the Society's website.

At the January meeting, new Society officers were elected. Roger Thorne has moved to the position of Chairman, presiding over meetings of the board and other behind-the-scenes activities. Our new President is J. Michael Morrison. Michael has been interested in local history since his upbringing across the street from the King of Prussia Inn. He is the author of two books, King of Prussia, for the Images of America series, and King of Prussia, Then and Now. He also chairs our Archive Committee.

John Senior remains as Vice President, and continues to manage the TEHS website and the digitization of the Quarterlies. Issues are now available on the website from Volume 1 (1937) through Volume 42 (2005), and plans are under way to add the more recent volumes.

Loyd Pakradooni is our new Secretary. Loyd is also a published author, whose book Glimpses: A Pictorial History of the Greater Main Line contains many wonderful historic photos. Loyd was also instrumental in the production of Excellence that Endures: The First 225 Years of The Episcopal Academy.

Mary Mayer joins as us Treasurer. Mary works at the Easttown Library and Information Center, a reliable source of Society supporters.

Welcome to our new officers as well as new Society members, and thanks to those who have continued to support us into 2012.
