

Mummers visit the Devon Horse Show

To the delight of those in attendance, members of the award-winning Fralinger String Band made two special evening appearances at the 2015 Devon Horse Show and Country Fair. The group assembled by the front entrance gate, dressed in their elaborate costumes and carrying their instruments, and after being formally introduced, marched into and around the Dixon Oval, all the while performing their classic Mummers-style program. — JOS

Photographs courtesy of John O. Senior © 2015

