

Society Activity at Tredyffrin Public Library

The Society's relationship with Tredyffrin Public Library has become much more active over the last few months. Society board of directors member and program chair Marianne Hooper is employed there as Planning Coordinator, and she has helped to develop the Local History room in its new location.

She has also facilitated the Board's decision to hold our Fall 2015 series of three public meetings at Tredyffrin as a way of reaching out to an expanded constituency. We will return to Easttown Library & Information Center for the Winter 2016 series of meetings starting in January 2016.

Additionally, the Society was pleased to provide content from our archive for exhibition in the library's entrance hall display case during the month of July. Society members Gretchen Kiernan, Glenna Keene, and Jean C. Dixon organized and arranged the display. All three are also members of the Tredyffrin Township Historical Commission, and the adjacent display case featured material from that organization. — JOS
