

TEHS Featured on PBPA Banner

The Society has a new point of presence on the southeast corner of South Valley Road and Lancaster Avenue in central Paoli.

In May 2015, the Paoli Business & Professional Association (PBPA) initiated a new program to display forty sponsored street banners on lamp posts along Route 30 and Route 252 in Paoli. These colorful banners feature the PBPA logo along with individual sponsor information, are expected to be on display for three years, starting in Spring 2016. The Society supported this initiative by sponsoring a banner with custom artwork, as may be seen in the adjacent photo.

Founded in 1947, the PBPA is a non-profit organization dedicated to cultivating economic and cultural vitality in the greater Paoli community. More information can be found on their website at www.paolibusiness.com — JOS
