

Since 1989, standholder Nancy Matus has operated the legendary Nancy's Candy Corner—the place to visit and shop “for kids of all ages” at the Strafford Market. Courtesy of Roger D. Thorne.

An attraction for grown-ups and kids alike, the displays at Nancy's Candy Corner may be the most colorful at the Market, and provide an abundance of choices. Courtesy of Roger D. Thorne.

(ABOVE) Nancy Matus (right), who has owned the legendary Nancy's Candy Corner at the Strafford Farmers Market since 1989, with her daughter Lisa Ujobai in this image taken around Christmas 1995. Nancy and Lisa can frequently be seen working the stand together. Courtesy of Nancy Matus. (BELOW) Lisa Ujobai (L), with her mother Nancy Matus, taken at the iconic Nancy's Candy Corner on November 6, 2019. Nancy began her business in 1989. Courtesy of Roger D. Thorne.

(ABOVE) Long-time employee Carl Leaman (center) and standholder Chris Powell (right) prepare for another busy market day at the Good Harvest Farm stand at the Strafford Farmers Market, Saturday, November 2, 2019. Chris and Cindy Powell began serving their customers in their current location in June 2013, replacing the legendary Old Homestead Farm standholder. (BELOW) Friendly and knowledgeable, popular Good Harvest Farm employee Andrew Herr is about to fist bump yet another satisfied customer. Courtesy of Roger D. Thorne.

Former Rittenhouse Farm stand owner, current Good Harvest Farm employee, and Strafford Farmers Market legend Carl Leaman, celebrates his 86th birthday while on the job, October 30, 2019. Courtesy of Roger D. Thorne.

Copyright © 2025 Tredyffrin Easttown Historical Society. All Rights Reserved. Authors retain copyright for their contributions. This publication or any portion thereof may not be reproduced or used in any manner whatsoever without the express written permission of the publisher. Contact the Society for permission to use any content in this publication. The Society does not accept responsibility for the accuracy of the information herein.